2004 Township Budget Approved

BY MARGARET O'KELLEY

A special Township Board meeting was held on October 30th at the Township Hall to hold a public hearing and take action on the 2004 Township Budget.

There was no citizen participation in the public hearing portion so the meeting did not last very long. Several Board members made some specific or general comments but there were no major disagreements on the proposed budget.

Supervisor Mitchell said the budget was the smallest in three years with the 2004 budget reduced by 7%. He said he had asked each department to reduce their budget by 6% and said each department responded in a positive manner.

He said the budget did not fund for an administrative assistant for his office and the police chief's office.

Trustee Carey said the Board needed to budget for another person to assist Karen Carney in the accounting department. Trustee Adkins and Krause spoke in support of this.

Clerk Bowers said the insurance costs went up $31,000 due in part to the 9-11 incident in New York.

The 2004 Budget levied the following millage: General Operations .7941, Fire 2.0051, and Police 4.6324

Below is the letter Supervisor Mitchell wrote to introduce the 2004 budget. We also include the General Fund expenditures and revenues anticipated for the fiscal year 2004 commencing January 1 ending December 31, 2004.

2004 Budget Message From the Township Supervisor:

A major trend affecting local government financing in Michigan and in particular townships is the continued cuts to State Shared Revenue

Huron Township's budget budget was previously allowed to grow in anticipation of the 2000 census and the positive effect it would have on State Shared Revenue. State revenue sharing covers about 40% of the Township's operating budget. The 30% growth in the Township's population, and adjustments to the revenue sharing formula, should have allowed for a similar growth in dollars from state revenue sharing amounting to about $400,000 annually.

This revenue growth for the Township has been limited by the slowdown in the state's economy. At the beginning of the slowdown the state reduced appropriations for revenue sharing for 2001/2002 and followed in 2002/2003 with additional reductions. The state budget approved for 2003/2004 provides for an additional 3% reduction from the already reduced fiscal 2002/2003 levels.

The annual loss revenue for Huron Township in 2002 was about $100,000 and another $100,000 in fiscal year 2003. Revenue sharing for the Township is down $200,000 annually from the 2002 level before the slowdown and the 2004 cuts could cost us another $70,000 - $100,000.

For planning purposes the auditors recommend that we budget no growth in State Shared Revenue payments and do not rule out future cuts. The five-year forecasts for the Township indicates that we will deplete our fund balance in five years if these revenue sharing cuts continue.

Submitted herewith is the proposed 2004 Budget for Huron Charter Township. The recommended budget presented for consideration includes a 6% reduction in expenses for all departments except where contractual commitments prevent it. An additional 3% was picked up in revenues for a net reduction of 4% from the Total forecasted for 2004 in the October update of the five-year financial model.

These recommendations create a balanced budget that will not put additional drain on the Township's fund balance in 2004. It's recommended that each department of the Township take steps to tighten up spending and look for cuts wherever possible. Close monitoring of this situation is necessary and further action may be necessary after the Township's audit in February 2004.

John Mitchell
Township Supervisor

Huron Sportsmen's Club Donates to Fire and Police

Marv Krause who organized the first annual car show hosted by the Huron Sportsmens Association in New Boston presents a check for $300.00 to Fire Chief Dave Russow. The First Annual Classic Car Show was hosted by the Huron Sportsmens Association during this years Applefest. On Saturday, October 4th, 2003 a classic car show was hosted by the Huron Sportsmens Association on their grounds located on Sterling Street in New Boston. Over 50 classic automobiles and trucks attended the inaugural event that is to become an annual event. Although the weather Friday night looked to put a damper on the event, Saturday dawned clear and cool that brought these beautiful vehicles out for the show.

Marv Krause, Chairman of the Huron Sportsmen's Auto Show; with Fire Chief Dave Russow.

Marv Krause, Chairman of the Auto Show, with the help of friends and relatives, coordinated the event gathering over 25 sponsors who provided awards and door prizes. Marv stated that "Local cooperation and support from our sponsors made the event a hit." "We are already planning for next year."

The fundraising event allowed Marv to present a check for $300.00 to the Fire Department and the Police Department.

We are looking forward to next year's Applefest Car Show.

Eric Neisen Will Attend Wake Forest University

The Huron High School Athletic Department would like to announce that Eric Niesen has committed to play baseball at Wake Forest University. Wake Forest University is a NCAA Division I institution located in Winston-Salem, North Carolina and plays in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

The A.C.C. is highly regarded as the best baseball conference in the country. Eric chose Wake Forest over Michigan State, Notre Dame, Arkansas State and Coastal Carolina.

"Eric is an exceptional young man whose development as a pitcher and a student has led to his many opportunities. We look forward to following Eric in his collegiate career and beyond," commented Athletic Director Rick Dorn.

Flat Rock City Council Reviews Sidewalk & Street Improvements, Gets Update on SHUVA

BY SALLY A. CARTER

Dennis Mowbray, city clerk, reported that he had gone to Battle Creek the previous week for passport training. He said that soon residents would be able to apply for passports at the Flat Rock city clerk's office.

John Russ, Building and Safety Director, reported that the sidewalk program started Thursday, October 16, 2003. He said residents should call his office if there were any complaints. Some residents have been upset by the need to close their driveways. Mr. Russ said the contractor needs 10 days for the pavement to dry after it is laid.

He said there were three ways for residents to pay for their sidewalks. After they are billed residents can pay the bill in full, arrange for payments over three years or have it added to their taxes. Residents will be charged $10.00 for permits to do the work. However, residents won't need to apply for the permits.

Bruce Hammond, DPS Director, reported that the hazardous waste collection on October 18th had gone well. This was the first collection involving other communities. Hammond said there were 137 cars from Flat Rock, 16 cars from Brownstown, 6 cars from Rockwood and 19 cars from Gibraltar, for a total of 173 cars. Hammond said, "All the citizens from the other communities seemed fairly pleased with our setup, so we are going to do it again next year." He added that next year they were looking at expanding and accepting e-waste such as computers, fax machines and keyboards.

Mr. Hammond also told the council that the repaving of Mill Street and Tamarack Court were substantially complete.

Mr. Hammond updated the council on the state of the new recreation center. He said that they had begun erecting the steel beams on that day. The masons will be starting brickwork for the walls by the beginning of next week.

Councilman James Martin asked about the progress on East Huron River Drive. He noted the patching seems to be completed and wondered about the timetable for completing the full resurfacing. Hammond said there was no timetable but it should be completed soon. Mayor Jones asked what the plans called for. Hammond replied it was to be completed by the middle of November. Jones commented they didn't have very much time left. Martin asked when the plan was to resurface Gibraltar. Hammond replied, "They're not going to do that until next year. We don't want both (Huron River Drive and Gibraltar Road) torn up at the same time."

Councilman David Karoly was pleased to note the presence of so many Flat Rock High School students in the audience. He reminded those who were eighteen to register to vote, so they could vote in the November election. He also wished all of the candidates running good luck. He also offered congratulations to John Russ for the sidewalk program. The plan is for 9000 linear feet of sidewalk to be replaced.

The mayor had more information about the sewer situation with the South Huron Valley Utility Authorization (SHUVA). He said that Flat Rock had won over $350,000.00 so far in their lawsuit against SHUVA. They have one item pending, a questionable bond payment of $55,000.00 from November of 1998. SHUVA maintains that Flat Rock did not pay the money due, so they withheld this amount, the look back adjustment in the past.

Jones said, "What happened was that 32 days prior to the payment of the bond issue due on November 6, 2003 there was another bond issue sold and that money was put into an escrow account to pay off the old Wayne County bonds. That money was to pay the bond payment due November 1, 1998. We didn't have money due but the rest of the communities paid anyway." Jones said Wayne County later gave Flat Rock a credit memo because no payment was due.

Although Wayne County was to repay the other communities money, they didn't actually do it. Jones said, "All of the arguments of SHUVA have been proven wrong, so they won't pay us the money. They feel that they made a mistake and lost the money, so we ought to do the same thing." Jones had a memo showing a cash transfer from Wayne County for $87,000.00 from the debt service to the cash fund. He said, "After this lawsuit, which has lasted for five years, we're going to get our money back and so are the other communities who didn't know the money was due."

Jones went on to discuss a memo with a new cost allocation based on lowered bids. Van Buren's share was lowered from $757,000.00 to $657,000.00 when the cost was lowered to $15 million. He said this was not right because Van Buren was paying a flat fee, which was not based on the cost allocation, so it should not have been lowered. The actual bond issue will be $9,284,000.00 because Van Buren and Huron are paying cash for their share.

Jones then referred council members to an e-mail from Keri Blanchett of Stauder

Halloween Costumes at the 34th District Court Draw Rave Reviews

Capping off a theme week of "school days," "dress up day," and "pajama day," visitors to the 34th district court on Halloween witnessed court employees embracing the spirit of the day by donning costumes to mark the occasion. A wide variety of artistic and creative costumes were displayed by twenty one court employees. The costumes brought smiles followed by ooh's and aah's from those on hand at the court.

Judge Brian A. Oakley was a dashing Zorro complete with a cape and sword. Judge Oakley's court recorder, Paula Moore, turned heads with a startling reminder of what scissors can do if you run with them. Her t-shirt simply stated, "runs with scissors" and a huge pair of scissors with a front and back impaled her body.

Court Administrator and mom-to-be Johanna O'Grady-Ward was resplendent as Snow White.

Taking top honors for the third year in a row, Melinda Shearrer, a deputy clerk in the probation department came dressed as an "Oompa Loompa," a character from "Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory." Capturing second place honors was cashier Bonnie Shahan who captured the concept of eerie as a grey-haired zombie.

Ribbons were presented for first and second place honors and certificates of appreciation were given to everyone who participated in the costume contest.

Staff members who dressed for the occasion included: Criminal/Traffic Supervisors JoAnn Brown as a zombie and Dawn Springer as a clown.

Peggy Zachary dressed as a motorcycle biker with a flaming red wig. Criminal Traffic Deputy clerks included: Yahmi Nundley, as a nifty fifty gal with a ponytail and poodle skirt, Kim Martin came as a deviled egg and co-workers Karen Genz and Kim Carr came as mustard and ketchup bottles, Virginia Randolph as a fairy wood nymph, Mindy Suchy as a renaissance queen, telephone operator, Herry Rohn as Julius Caesar, Sharron Russell as movie character Beetlejuice, Carol Greca as a NASCAR driver, Melissa Chapp as Spiderwoman and Mike Lamerato as a Cereal Killer.

Civil Department clerk Jackie Peagler was so realistic as an old man not even staff members recognized her.

Court financial director Sandy Crout came dressed as a little girl. Steve Williams, juvenile probation officer, came as a Grim Reaper, while Court Officer Bruce Preston came as a convict.

The day marked a festive note to the serious business conducted at the court, but the efforts seemed appreciated by the many smiles from court visitors.

Costume creations were judged by the staff and ballots counted by Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green and Judge David M. Parrott.

Staff members Oneita Davis, Paula Moore, Sharron Russell, Bonnie Shahan and Peggy Zachrey brought in Halloween goodies of cookies, cupcakes and candy for everyone to enjoy.

Kiwanis Club to Sell Christmas Trees Again to Raise Funds for Charity

The Kiwanis Club of Flat Rock will once again be selling Christmas trees to raise money for community projects. The location of the sale will be on Telegraph Road in Flat Rock, just north of Huron River Drive (in front of St. Vincent DePaul).

The tree lot will be open for business starting Saturday, November 29, 2003. They will also be carrying fresh Holiday Wreaths which make wonderful gifts. All of the proceeds from the trees and wreaths go directly back into the community. Anyone interested in volunteering to help out please call 734-276-1759 for more information. It's time to put real trees back in Christmas.

Tips from Tina

CLEANING TIPS:

SHOWER CURTAINS: Simply spray Tilex on the shower curtain to remove the build up of soap scum and mold. No rinsing needed.

TOWELS: They dry you faster if you don't put fabric softener in the rinse cycle or dryer sheets in the dryer. try it, it works.

WAX: On hard surfaces (wood, counter tops) scrape with a plastic putty knife or spatula, heat a wet cloth in the microwave 2-3 minutes (it will be hot so use tongs to remove), lay the cloth on the surface for a few minutes and wax should come right off. If white marks appear put mayonnaise on the area for about 15 minutes and wipe off and buff to shine.

Having a hard time getting the remaining wax out of your votive candle holders? Simply put the holder in the freezer for about 15 minutes, remove and turn upside down, the wax should fall right out.

VACUUM CLEANER: Sprinkle the floor with moth ball crystals or baking soda to keep the bag smelling fresh.(vacuum up) They also make air fresheners for vacuum cleaner bags, check your local stores.

For entertainment purposes only.

Green Bean and Almond Casserole

This week the target is the Green Bean Casserole. The updated version has a few more ingredients than the traditional one but it has a lot more to offer. Put this one up against Aunt Eleanor's version at the holiday table and just see who wins the tastebud award this year.

Green Bean and Almond Casserole

2 cans cut green beans -
drained

1 can cream of
mushroom soup

1 cup skim milk or whichever you prefer

2 Tbs. butter - cut into bits

1/4 cup onion - finely chopped

In a 2 ltr. - 2.5 ltr. covered casserole, combine green beans, onion and butter. In a separate bowl, mix together soup, milk, worcestershire, beau monde, parsley, salt and pepper. Pour mixture over green beans. Cover

2 Tbs. Worcestershire

1 tsp. beau monde

2 Tbs. Parsley

1/2 tsp. salt

1/4 tsp. pepper

1/4 cup slivered almonds

Flat Rock City Council

Barch to the office of William Debiassi. The e-mail indicated that there was no Federal money available for the first quarter to fund the bond issue and get the low interest loan.

Jones said, "If we would have adopted that resolution (at the October 6th meeting) for financing and bidding of contracts and the Federal funds didn't come through to the State of Michigan, we would have been increasing our water and sewer rates probably five times to accumulate the 2.4 million to pay for our share of the construction. What Debiassi and Trun Maatch did was to put our community in jeopardy. Keep in mind, Brownstown and Van Buren were not put in jeopardy because they were going to pay cash anyway."

Jones said Flat Rock would have been committed to 2.4 million in bonds for construction and not known whether or not they had the financing. He said, "And so that's the kind of information they supply to you. Trust me, this memo from Keri Blanchett to Debiassi was a mistake for us to get our hands on. I don't think they ever wanted us to know that." Jones pointed out that the e-mail was dated October 2, 2003, which was four days before the council meeting where Flat Rock was asked to approve the resolution.

Jones went on to say, "You can't trust anybody at this South Huron Valley. I've been so frustrated with it lately, I probably would not bring any recommendation to the council unless it included firing both attorneys, that being Trun, Maatch and Debiassi because they are not acting in the best interests of all communities. Their proposals and resolutions put this city in jeopardy if we had accepted a contract without having financing for it."

The city council had received four bids for the East-West non-motorized pathway. DeAngelis Landscape, Inc. was the lowest bid at $1,464,492.60. Wayne County will be paying $375,000.00 of that. Flat Rock's share will be $175,000.00 more than anticipated. Mayor Jones said he had spoken to Rockwood and Gibraltar about helping with the cost. He believes that Rockwood will help with about $50,000.00.

Jones explained that the extra cost was due to the fact the pathway goes over a lot of wetlands as it comes over the expressway. This will require wooden walkways of about 625 linear feet about two feet over the ground over the wetland area. This adds to the expense.

Councilman Karoly asked if there was any additional money from the Greenways project. Jones told the council that Wayne County still owes Flat Rock money which has not been budgeted because he was not sure when they would get it. It should be around $100,000.00 or $180,000.00. That money will be used to help defray the added cost.

Mayor Jones had an information only item from SHUVA regarding monthly invoices. The rates have increased by 17% or from $40,000.00 to $47,000.00 per month. SHUVA owes $850,000.00 for engineering fees so they would like to increase the rate by another 41%. Jones said, "I'm considering and discussing with Mr. Grunow about going to court. I'm not going to levy that kind of increase on the residents of Flat Rock." Councilman Karoly suggested contacting the other communities who are also facing this increase to see if they would like to be part of any court action. Jones said the $850,000.00 came out of the repair and replacement fund through SHUVA and it doesn't have to be repaid in one year. Karoly said State Senator Bruce Patterson has signed a polluters pay bill. He wanted to know if SHUVA was still being pressured to go along with the retention basin by DEQ. Jones said only the engineer and attorneys spoke to DEQ. He said SHUVA has had one violation since the expansion and it was about 6.5 million gallons of primary, but no secondary treated sewage. He pointed out that Lincoln Park and the Downriver system had "dumped 154 million gallons of raw sewage right into the lake."

The council was asked to approve a bill for $3,779.00 for the Brown Street water main contractor. Councilman Gagne objected because the bill has been changed and no one official had signed off. The mayor pointed out that it had been reduced by $20,000.00. DPS Director Hammond explained that the city engineer had changed the figures based on the actual quantities they do inspections on.

The council approved a request from the Flat Rock

Kiwanis for their annual Christmas tree sale, to be conducted from November 11th through December 23rd, 2004.

Finally, the council approved a resolution from the Tax Increment Finance Authority for bond issuance. The Mayor said, "Miller Canfield won't give us a clean opinion on if it can be tax free." He said it would cost an extra $800,000.00 over the course of the bond issue otherwise. He said he had turned over the the matter to the tax department at Ford Motor Co. to iron out with Miller Canfield.
